

1 Application to the problem

We now turn our attention from the theory of the calculus of moving surfaces to the problem we originally had: that of the solution of the eigenvalue problem for the laplacian in regular polygons. The solution reported here is due to P. Grinfeld, and G. Strang and was originally published in [?]